4) Venue is proper in this district as the place of incorporation of the Defendant and the principal office of the Defendant are within the district and the policies, procedures and decisions that caused harm to the Plaintiff originated in this district.

III. A TRIAL BY TWELVE JURORS IS HEREBY DEMANDED

IV. STATEMENT OF THE CLAIMS

5) Plaintiff is currently 57 years of age and has worked in the securities industry for over 15 years and holds Series 7, 63(Current) and Series 65 (Previous) securities certifications.

6) On or about April 18, 2011, Plaintiff was hired by the Defendant and worked in its offices at 14321 North Northsight Boulevard, Scottsdale, Arizona 85260.

7) In the course of her employment Plaintiff observed multiple practices and procedures which she believed were violations of the SEC regulations as to client confidentiality and the security of client personal information.

8) The violations were reported on several occasions to Plaintiff's supervisors and compliance officers.

9) In response to her internal reporting of these problems Defendant repeatedly assured Plaintiff that such practices and procedures would be corrected or was told that the problems were known to Vanguard but it could not provide a date for resolution.

10) Instead of protecting its investors by correction of the wrongful conduct as promised, Vanguard chose to engage in a course of punitive and retaliative actions against Plaintiff.

11) These actions included job transfers, discriminatory auditing of Plaintiff's use of employee benefits, providing false information to its customers and eventually terminating Plaintiff when they knew she was a whistleblower who had disclosed information to the SEC.

12) Subsequent to her termination on August 27, 2015, Plaintiff learned that false information about her had been posted by Defendant on FINRA's public website.

13) Plaintiff objected and demanded that the information be removed which was done but Plaintiff's reputation had already been permanently damaged by Vanguard's retaliatory conduct.

14) Plaintiff subsequently learned that Defendant posted false information on an industry only web CRD maintained by FINRA which it has refused to remove.

15) Plaintiff's attempts to seek post termination employment have been destroyed by Vanguard's retaliatory conduct and Plaintiff has been unemployed since her wrongful termination.

16) Plaintiff has lost income and incurred substantial expenses including travel, lodging and related expenses in her attempts to obtain employment.

17) Plaintiff believes and avers that her unemployment will continue over her working life expectancy.

18) Vanguard's retaliatory termination of a known whistleblower violates federal law.

19) Plaintiff was paid an annual salary by Vanguard in the amount of $55,500 and including benefits the value of her employment package was approximately $75,000 annually.

20) The reasons asserted by Vanguard to justify Plaintiff's discharge are fictions created to avoid the protections given whistleblowers under the federal laws.

21) The Plaintiff's losses will continue over her life expectancy and her working life expectancy.

22) Plaintiff has been forced to incur counsel fees and costs in addition to expenses related to her travel and related expenses in her search for employment for which she seeks reimbursement.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff asks the court to award compensatory damages, counsel fees, interest and costs.

COUNT II
NEGLIGENT INFLECTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

23) Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 22 inclusive as the same were set forth herein at length.

24) Within 17 days after Plaintiff publicly disclosed that she had engaged in whistleblowing activities with the SEC because of Defendant's repeated failure to take corrective action to protect its client's confidentiality Defendant terminated Plaintiff's job.

- 25) Defendant falsely stated that Plaintiff was guilty of unprofessional conduct.
- 26) Defendant published its false accusations on the FINRA public website and also on FINRA's website accessible only to security industry sources.
- 27) Such accusations continue to remain on the FINRA website and have damaged Plaintiff's integrity within the industry.
- 28) Defendant knew that such a posting would effectively bar Plaintiff from obtaining employment in her chosen field and despite diligent efforts she has not received a single offer due to the false and retaliatory postings by the defendant.
- 29) As a result, Plaintiff has been wrongfully excluded by the industry.
- 30) Vanguard's actions and false statements were negligently done.
- 31) Plaintiff has been caused severe emotional distress, anxiety, embarrassment, humiliation and seeks compensatory losses, interest, counsel fees and costs.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff asks the Court to award compensatory damages, counsel fees and costs in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits.

COUNT III
INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

- 32) Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-22 of this Complaint as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

33) Defendant's wrongful discharge and libelous misstatements have intentionally caused the Plaintiff great anxiety, sleeplessness, headache, emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation and fear as to her future ability to support herself.

34) Plaintiff had incurred financial losses and been obliged to seek financial support from family and friends which has caused her additional embarrassment, humiliation and emotional distress.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff asks the Court to award compensatory and punitive damages as well as non-economic losses, counsel fees and costs with interest.
